Wood Memorial High School
Oakland City, Indiana

1980-81

1980-1981: Another year in the life of W.M.H.S. Trojans. A year composed of approximately 440 students and 28 faculty members and personnel all working together on the educational process.

For each student, W.M.H.S. has a different meaning. To some it is a home away from home, full of good memories and happy times. To some it is a place to acquire as much knowledge as possible. Yet others may have a different image of their school careers.

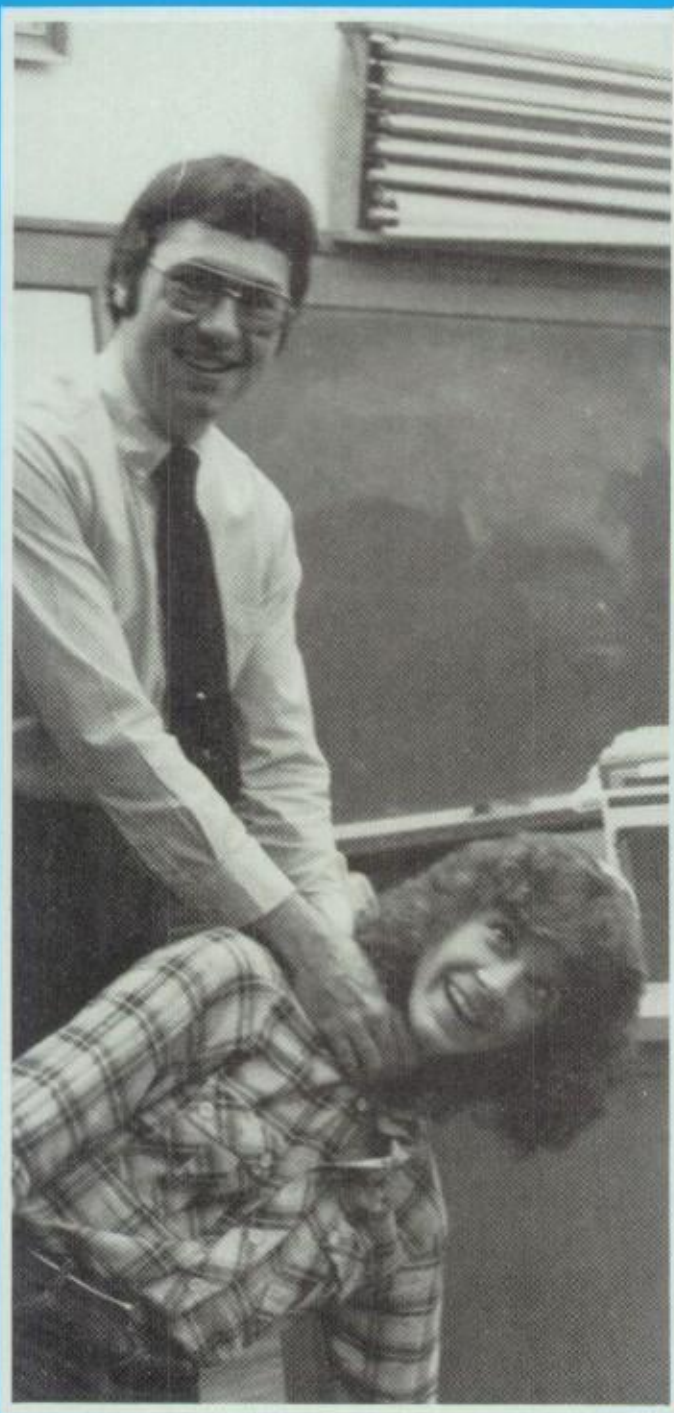

Whoever the person, high school is where each of us spends four years of our lives. Each of these years has its own special memories. To sum it up, this has been a super year full of great memories.

8 EFFORTLESS WAYS TO CHEAT YOUR WAY THROUGH HIGH SCHOOL

Cheating. It's not a nice thing to do. You know how upset your teachers and friends and parents would be if you were caught ... stealing. Yet that's exactly what you do every time you cheat on a test or paper.

Though you subscribe to the idea of cheating being a strict no-no, it becomes an actual maybe when you are cast into the real-life situation of having to get good enough grades to: (a) qualify for cheaper car insurance, (b) qualify for a later Friday night curfew, or (c) qualify for Dad's $5-for-an-A bonus plan.

So you take your chances and cheat. You might think that you don't have sufficient intelligence to get good grades on your own, but you are just smart enough to know how to cheat your way onto the Honor Roll. Question: Are you smart enough to be able to talk your way out of trouble when the teacher you thought was too dumb to ever catch you ... wasn't?

Anxious mothers, you can relax, providing that your children's photos appear on these pages. That's because the innocence of the models in the photos was determined before they were put into compromising situations.

METHOD 1:

A coy ploy. Reserved for the ingenious, the devious, and/or the truly desperate, this method has minimal requirements: a believable excuse for being absent on test day, and good hearing the day after. Warning: Listening at doors has its hazards. You might be mistaken for a piece of trash and get swept away by an over-zealous custodian.

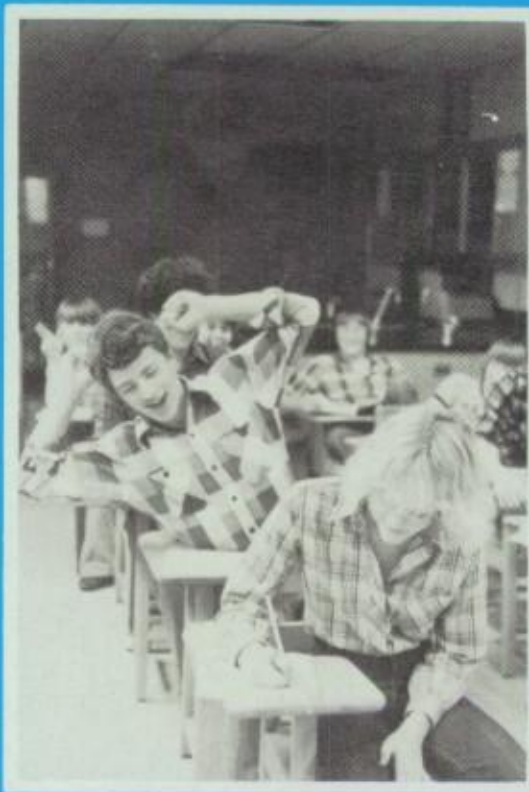

METHOD 5:

The night plight. While this method may be one way to attain grade salvation, it might prevent you from gaining salvation of the long lasting sort. While you may think there are no witnesses, remember that Santa Claus sees all. Warning: Getting caught breaking-and-entering a teacher's test file may mean you will never get-not have-to take the test.

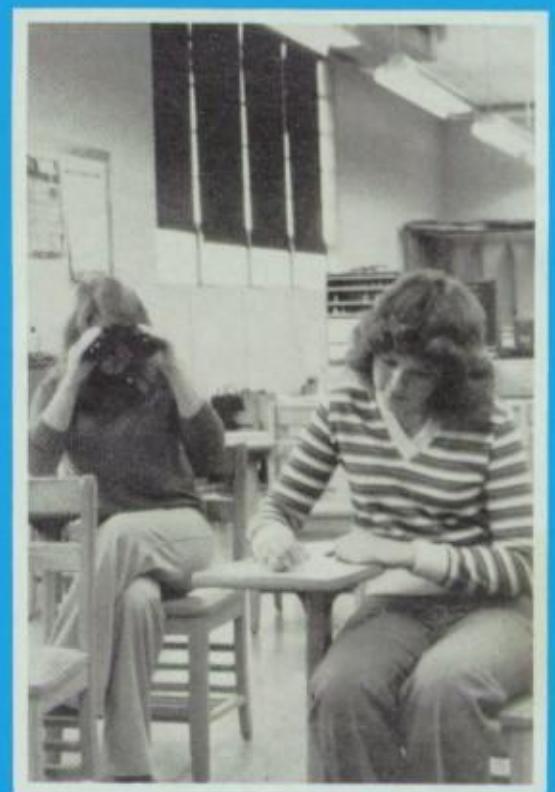

METHOD 2:

A sole sampler. This method is easy for even the novice. All that is required is a wornlooking shoe-is there a shoe in the school that isn't wornlooking?-some tape, a pen, and an ill-prepared student with a creative imagination. Warning: If your teacher sees your shoe, he might notice that "Nike" isn't the only thing written on the bottom.

METHOD 3:

Sneaking a peek. This procedure allows you to prove to your doubting teacher that you did indeed stay up late to study for the test. You take a gigantic y-a-w-n while peeking over the shoulder of the nearest unwary soul whose grade point average tops your own. Warning: If overused, this method could result in permanent dislocation of the jaw.

METHOD 4:

A magnify-cent alternative. This approach is a boon to the chronically near-sighted student. You explain to your incredibly gullible teacher that your binoculars are temporary replacements for your contacts. Then you proceed to get a good look at test answers. Warning: Boys don't make passes at girls who wear glasses, especially BIG ones.

METHOD 6:

A cowlneck caper. While answers written inside your turtleneck sweater are always close at hand, getting a look at them isn't always that simple. People might think you are checking (a) to see if your deodorant is working (b) to see if you're all there. Warning: Suspicious teachers might attempt a body search.

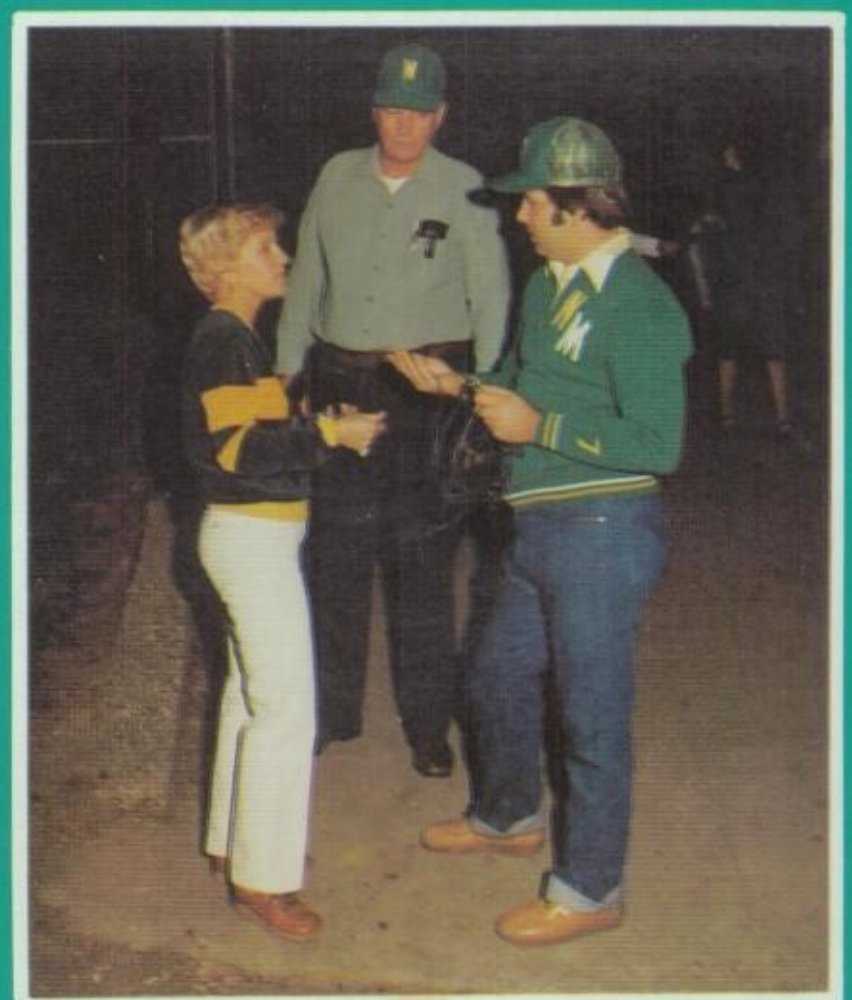

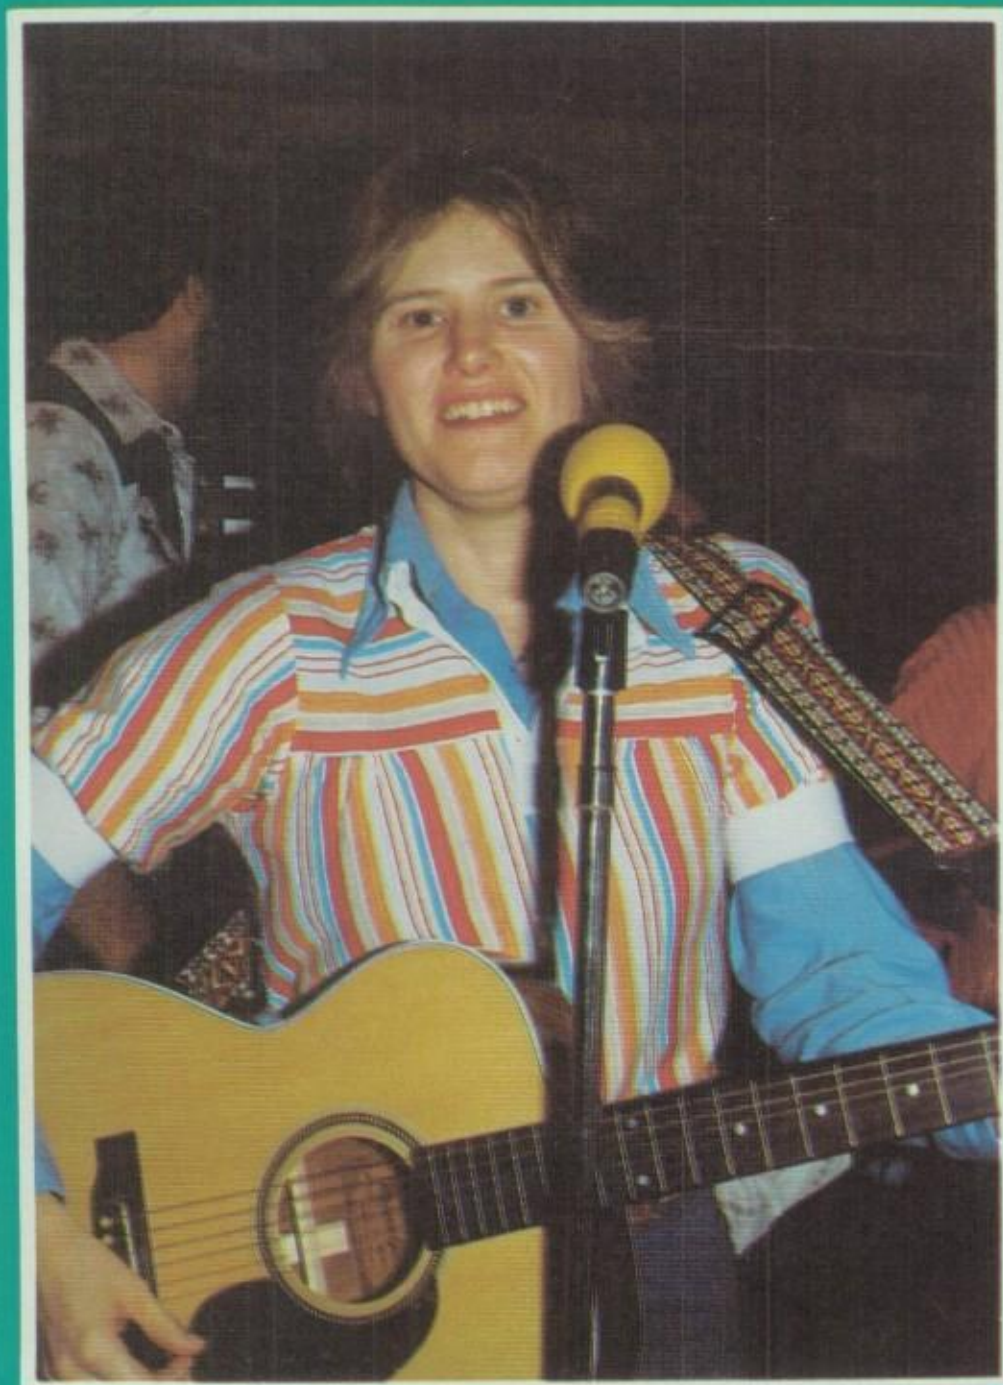

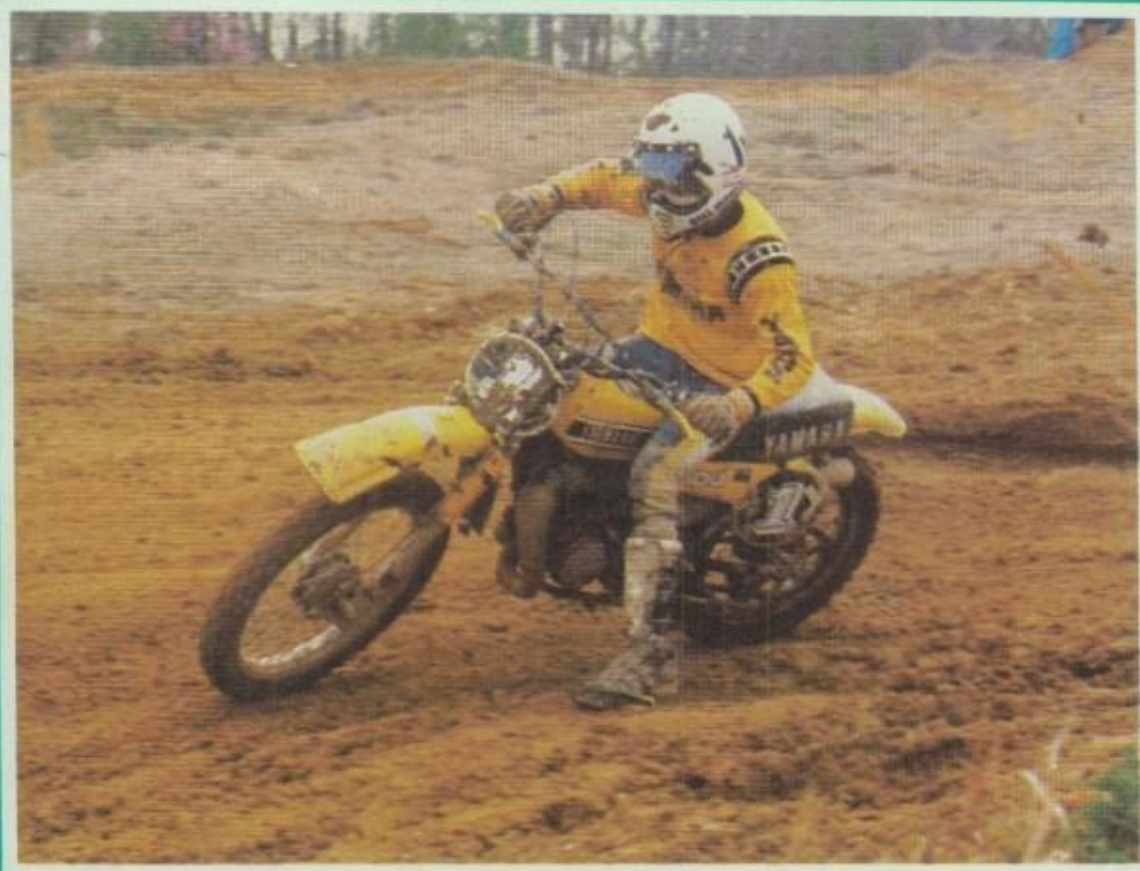

METHOD 7:

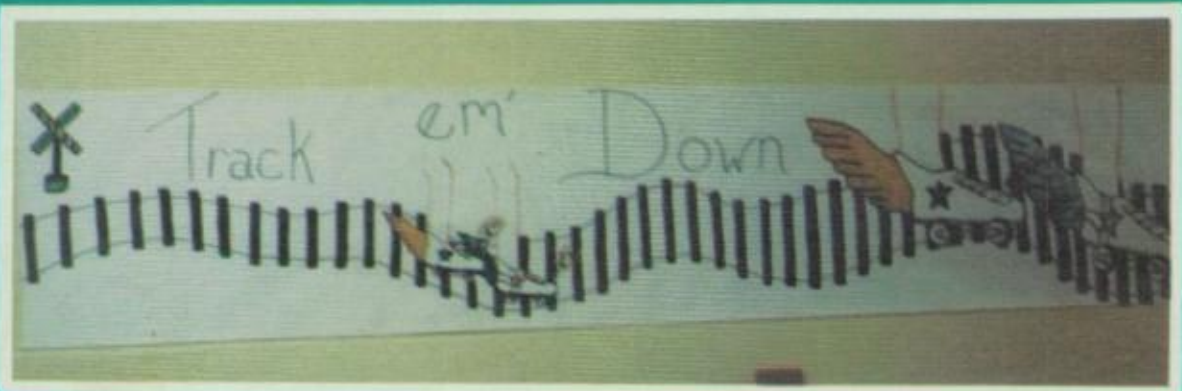

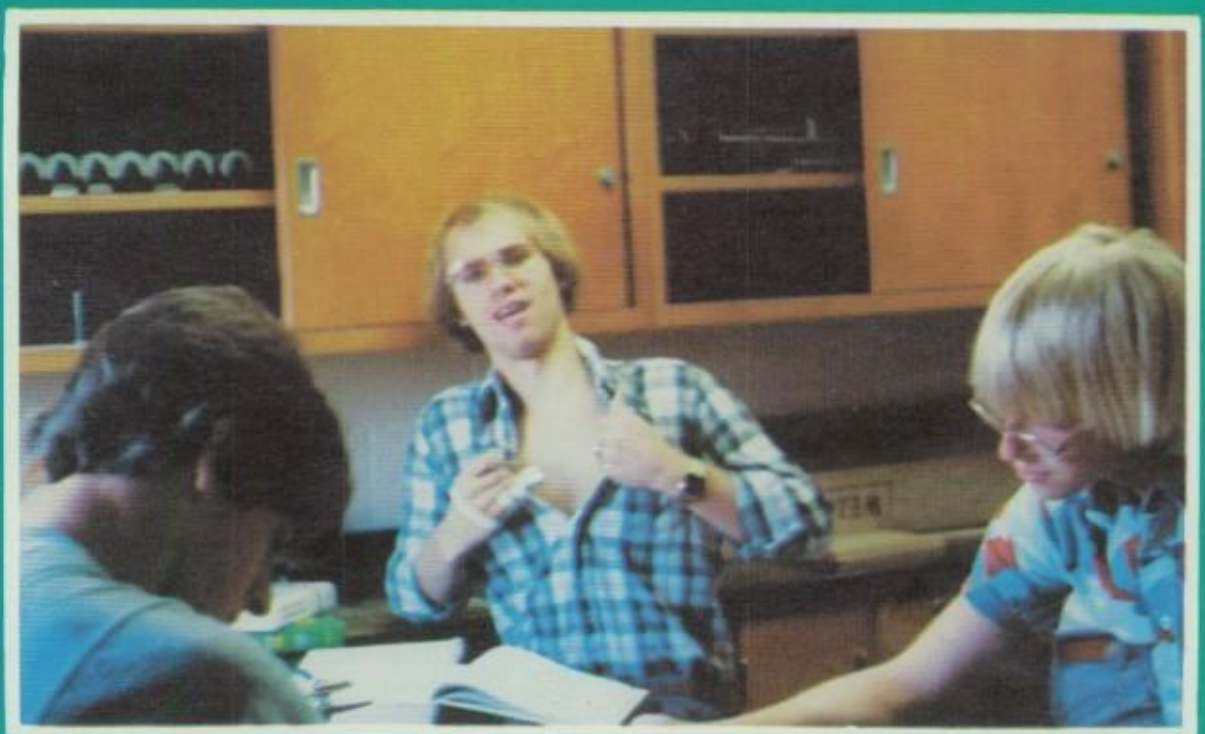

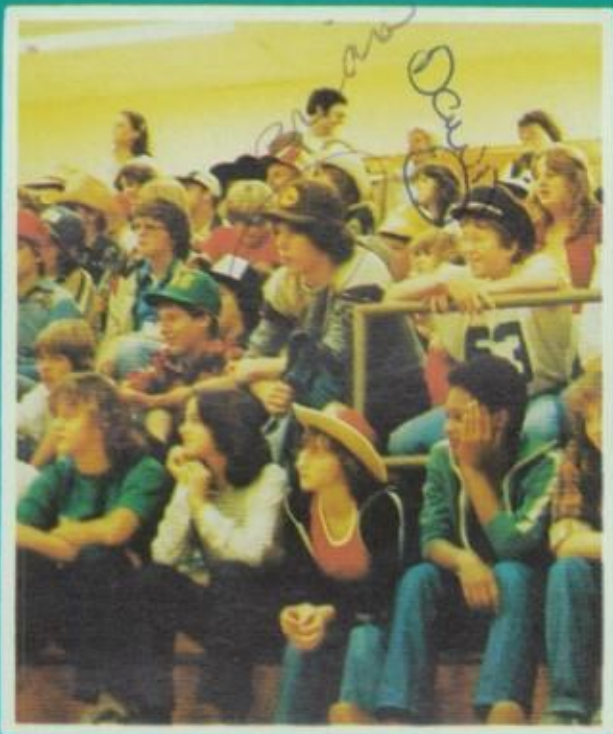

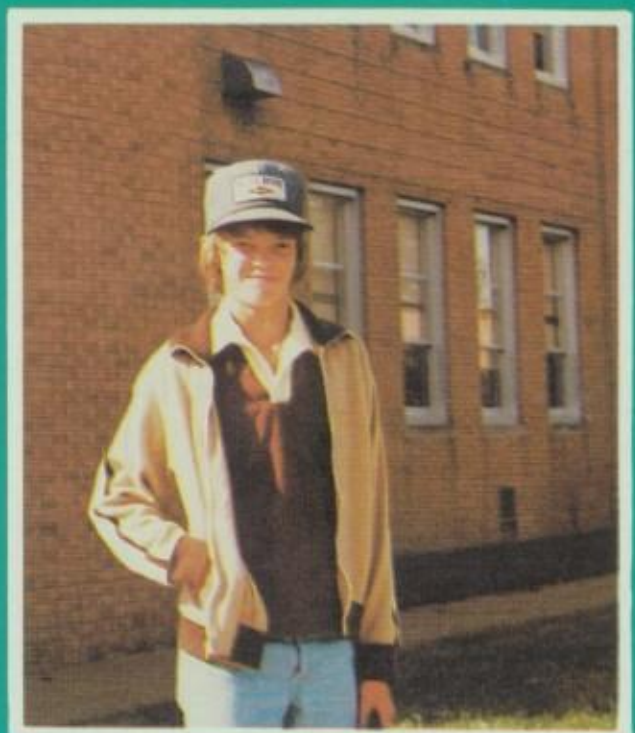

The gut check. This approach involves writing test information on your stomach, and then referring to it when your teacher is (a) out for coffee, (b) out for a smoke, or (c) out for lunch, the latter being considered a permanent state for some teachers. Warning: This method requires selfrestraint, not to be found in those even remotely ticklish.

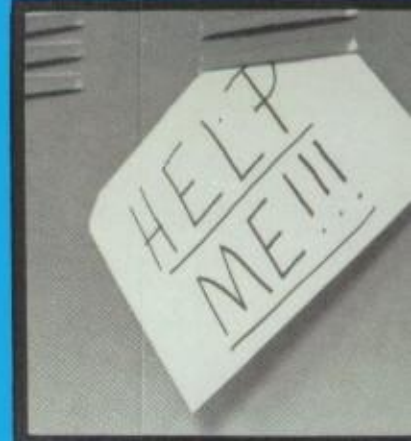

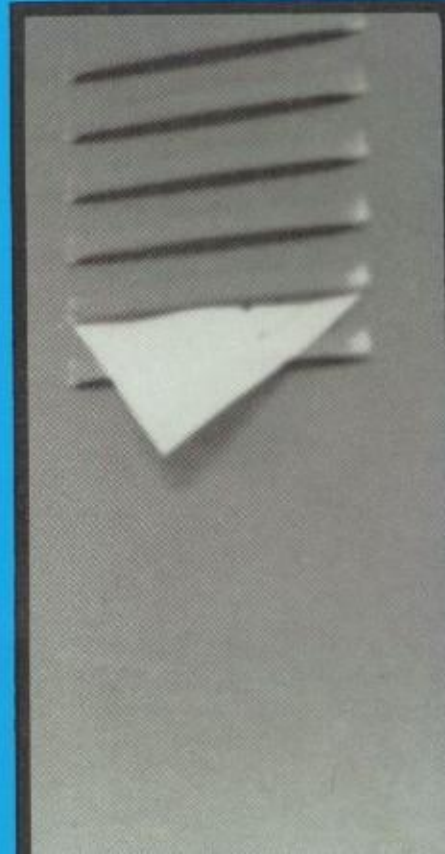

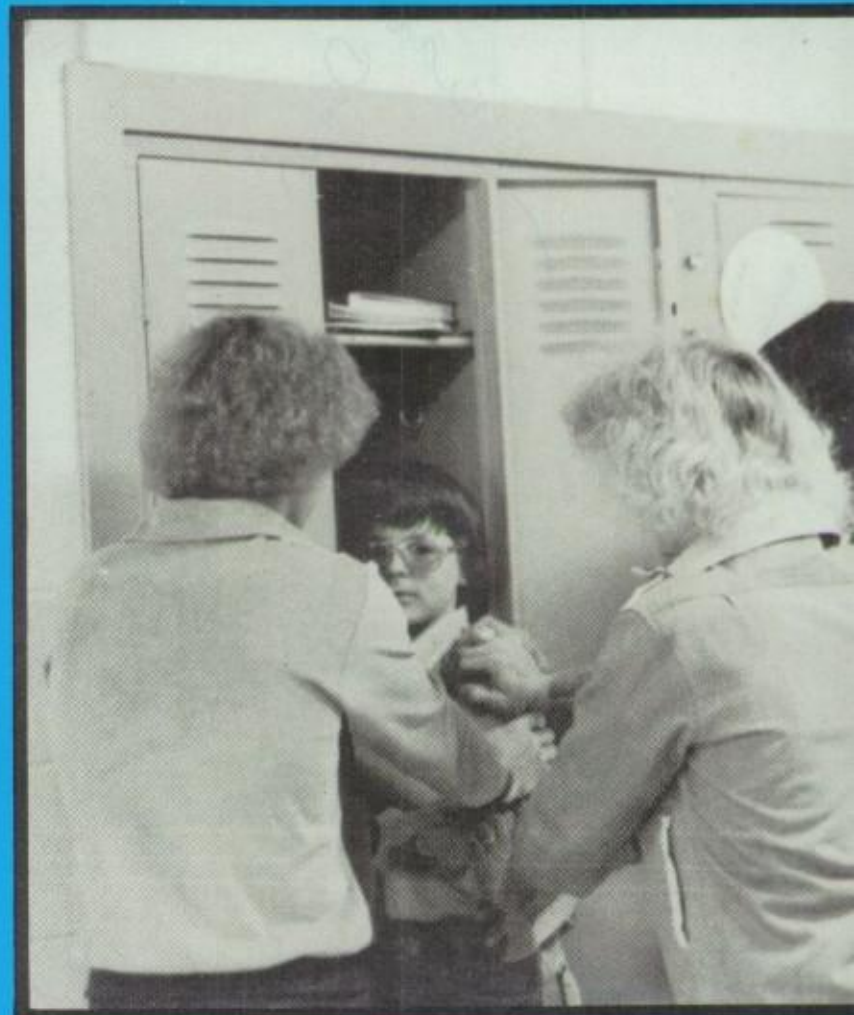

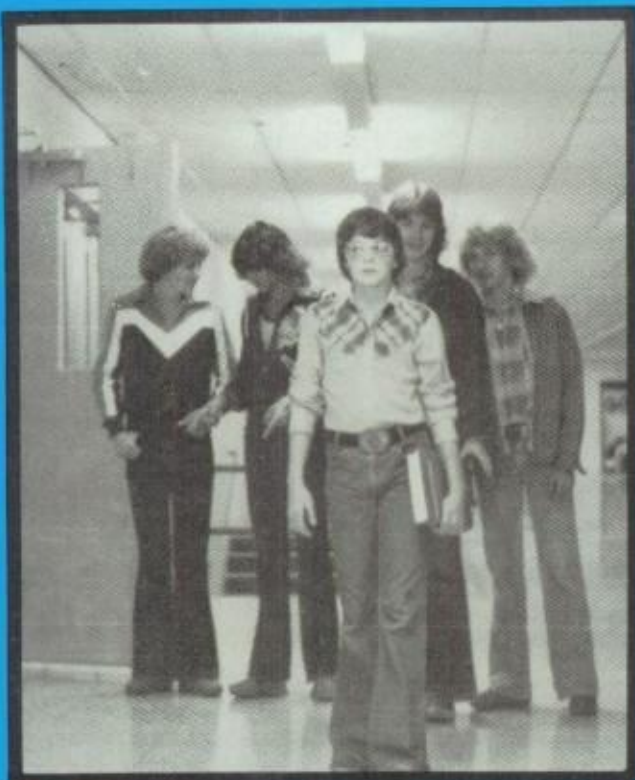

METHOD 8:

What price is right? Everyone knows that money talks. But will money make a teacher talk? Of course, silly. You know that everyone has his price, especially teachers. Considering their salaries, they can't afford not to. Warning: Before making your proposition, make sure that he understands that you are asking for answers ... and nothing else.

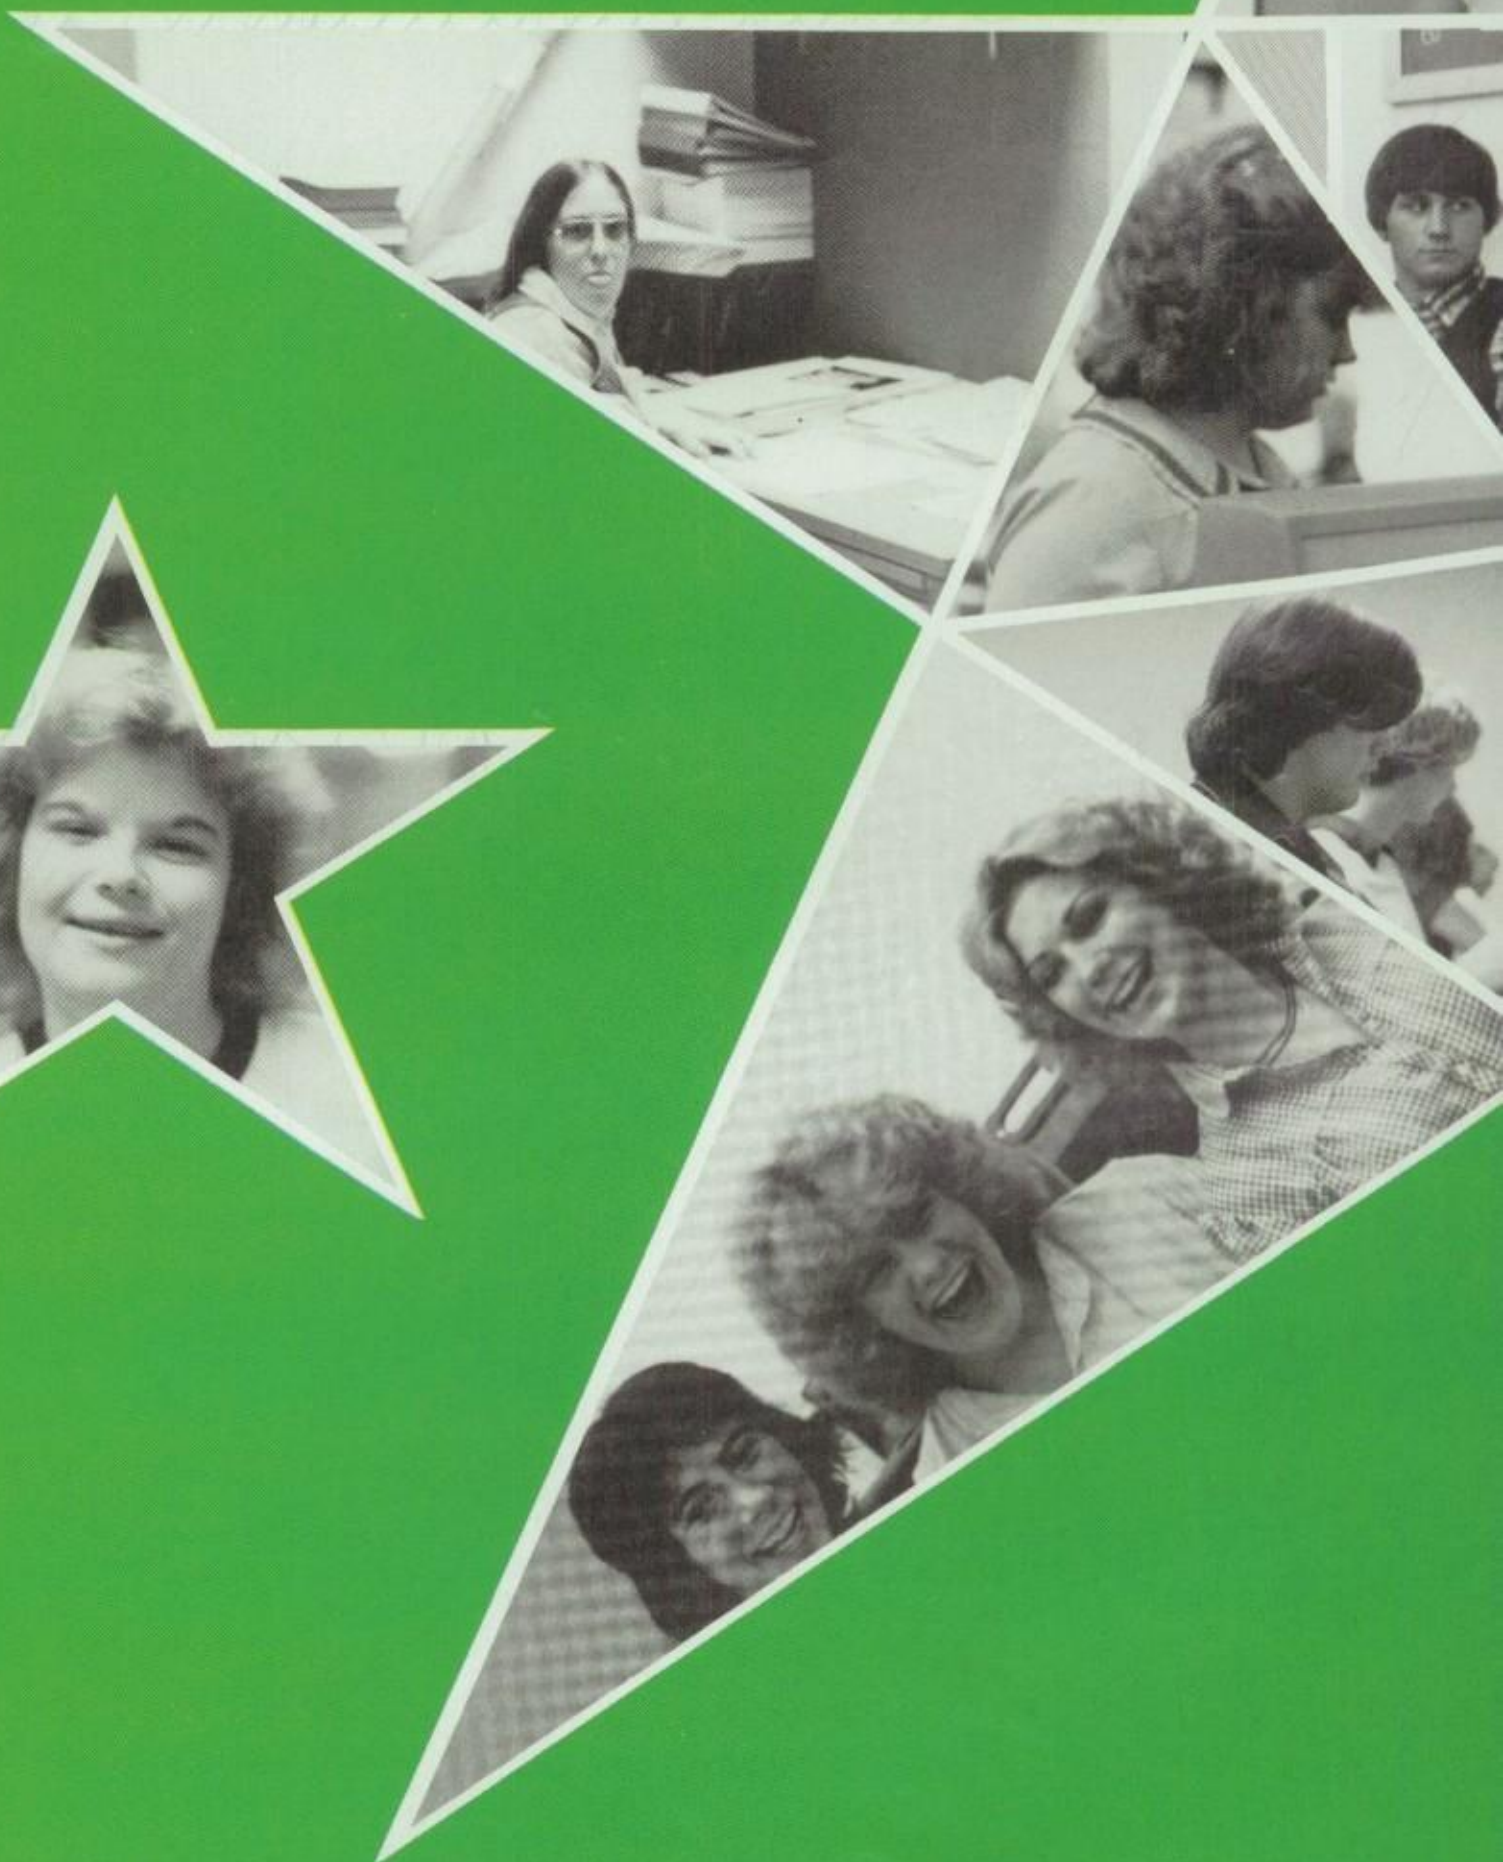

Q: What is little, green,
and fits in a locker?
A: A freshman!!!

SENIOR

SUPERSTARS

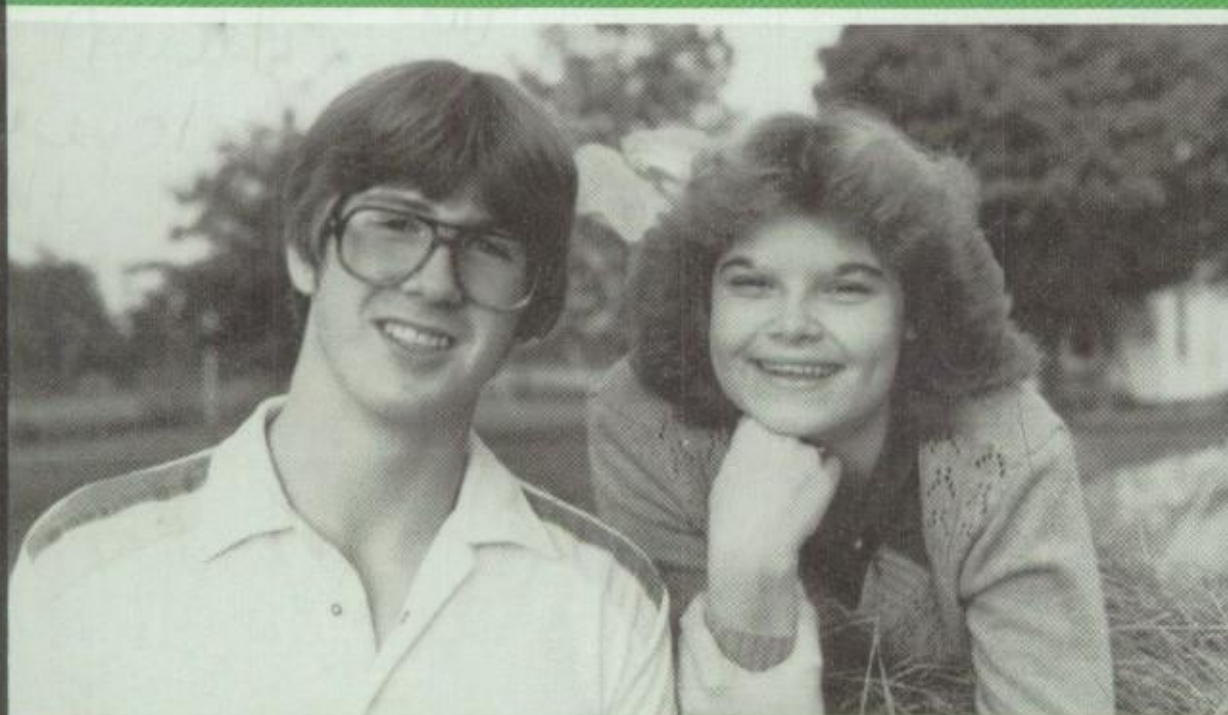

WHO'S WHO of 1981

Who's Who is an honor reserved especially for Seniors. During a called Senior class meeting each Senior was given a ballot listing the ten categories. After having placed a Senior's name in nomination that name could not be repeated in any other category on the ballot. If so, that ballot was void. All rules were clearly stated with the ballots being counted by a Senior, an underclassman, and the yearbook sponsor. Excitement and anticipation ran high with many an eager student offering to help tally the results. The final results were posted so that the entire student body would know whom the Seniors had selected. Throughout the year these Seniors were featured in articles in the Trojournal.

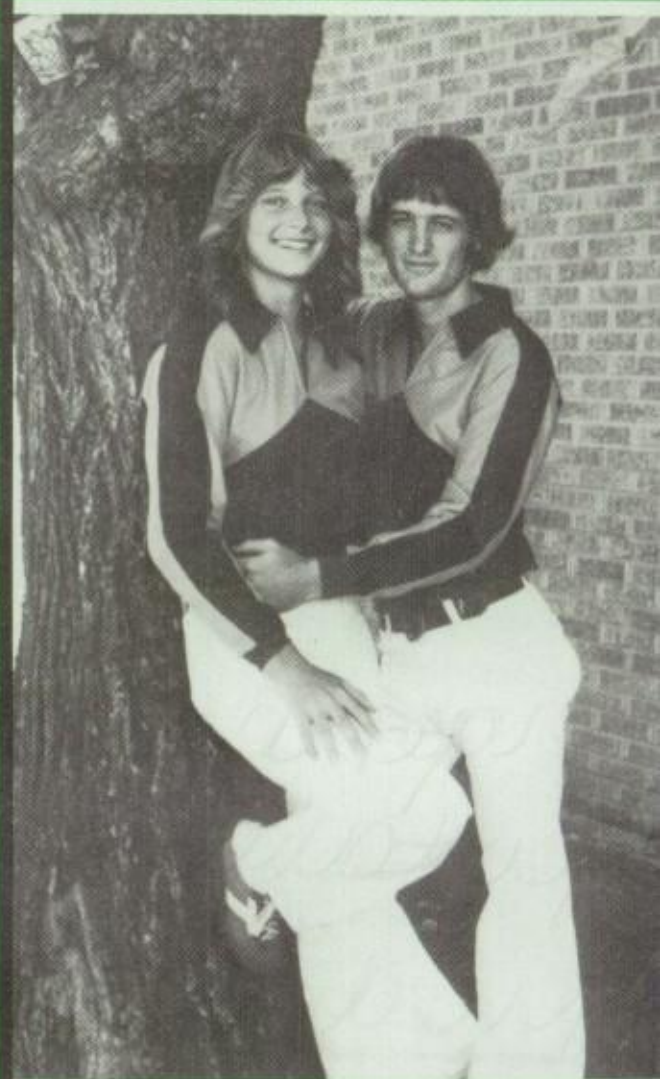

These twenty choice Seniors have talent, spirit, and personality in various forms. Without a doubt each one of these students is unique, as is the entire class of 1981.

As we close out our Senior year our hearts are filled with joy and anticipation of the future. Some of our best times have happened at Wood.

Our Freshman year began with nervous expectations. There were a lot of new faces to learn and friends to make. Once we got settled the year began to go faster. At the end of the year, united as a class, we ordered our '81 jackets.

Becoming Sophomores we began to make decisions and gain responsibilities. Our class jackets came in and we began showing more school spirit. We decided what our majors would be and which way we would go when high school was completed. To end the year we ordered our class rings.

As Juniors we gained the knowledge and experience of putting together a major undertaking-the Prom. Our prom was "Always and Forever" and we felt a distinct satisfaction in being able to produce such a pleasurable and memorable event.

And now we are Seniors. The years have been fun but they did not pass without the usual problems: the headaches over college-to go or not to go; and the aptitude and achievement tests that worked their way into our Senior year. And of course the yearbook, which called for a lot of hard work and time from everyone.

In closing, the Seniors would like to thank our sponsors, Mrs. Hunt and Mr. Hudson for all their help and loyalty and to Mrs. Hensley for her help and guidance to make this the best yearbook ever.

Oakland City College

"not for everybody
just for you"

Oakland City College is for YOU if you're looking for a college with the PERSONAL TOUCH-if you're looking for SUCCESS. OCC is a fully accredited Christian college offering four year Bachelor Degrees, two year Associate Degrees, and one year Certificates (in mechanics, welding, and secretarial science).

The PERSONAL TOUCH is very much an emphasis at Oakland City College, for here you will find an 18 to 1 student teacher ratio. You can get all of the educational basics you would find at a larger university, yet learn them in an atmosphere of individual attention.

We'd like to tell you more about us! For more information, call:
Admissions Office 749-4781

As we take off into new worlds, we will realize that our years at Wood have been some of the best. Our yearbook tries to capture some of the moments that will make the memories of this year remain with us. I had a super sponsor, Mrs. Hensley, and a great staff to work with. A big thank-you goes to these people for all the long, hard hours they put in to make this book a success. We had a lot of fun putting this together, and I hope you have as much fun reading, signing and looking at it as we did working on it. I wish next year's editor lots of luck (may you never miss a deadline) and once again, I thank everyone who took the time to care about this year's SHIELD.

So a really crazy person and dont ever change lots of luck in 1981, 82, 83, 84 and forever have been putting up with Wood Memorial bullshit cuz I aint going to have to much longer in any school unless I have to start my sophomore year well good or great luck with the special guy you pick, Dont forget or stop raising hell with Caldemeyer even when Im gone, somebodies got to straiten her shit out. Love & Luck

To a wild and crazy girl who I've just met this year. Good luck in your next three years at Woodland in everything you do. Remember the next time you across up the bathroom don't get caught.
P.S. Don't worry you'll find love
The night you get one of those Jonathan
